EVENTS, WITH MAGIC

PIT & PLATE FIRE | FLAME | FLAVOUR

Little Green Hill

Not Just A Hill.....but a Magical Meadow with a stunning outlook and view down the valley and over the Cotswolds Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

A wildflower meadow as a backdrop to the tipis, firepits, music and a unique secluded location. The farmland extends through the picturesque Coln Valley with borders to the quaint village of Coln St Dennis with easy access for both guests and suppliers.

A quiet spot, little known and off the beaten track, the meadow has unspoiled views over open countryside and a beautiful wildflower field. It is far from being just another farm field but is carefully manicured and kept looking beautiful for you throughout the summer months.

There is a selection of luxury Shepherds huts dotted around the property available to hire, and scope to add yurts or bells tents to the site to accommodate all your guests. You need to see it to believe it!

Our Food

Pit & Plate Culinary Experience: Inspired by the Spirit of Fire.

At Pit & Plate, we bring the soulful essence of open-fire cooking to your table, drawing inspiration from the ingredients and culture of our beautiful country. Our culinary journey revolves around the primal allure of fire, the art of grilling, and the celebration of quality ingredients.

Embrace the warmth and bold flavours that define Pit & Plate's unique catering experience. Our Pit Masters, are renowned for their unique approach to cooking and philosophy, which is deeply rooted in a connection to nature and a celebration of simple, elemental flavours.

Our food philosophy is a harmonious blend of tradition, simplicity, and a profound respect for the natural elements. Our approach to cooking is not just about creating meals but also about creating memorable experiences that are deeply rooted in the sensory and elemental aspects of food.

Event Management

We will take care of every aspect of your special day, taking out all the stress and allowing you to do what you should do; enjoy spending time with your loved ones.

Together with our Tipi partner (Buffalo) we can arrange bathrooms, power, catering tent, bars, staffing and management. We also have industry contacts we can recommend for flowers, makeup, photography, venue dressing, bands, and much more.

Their Tipis can be accessorised with additional indoor firepits, bars, dance floors, chill out areas, soft furniture, rugs. They have a wide range of items to customise the space with. Oak barrels, milk churns, outdoor kadai firebowls, tiki torches to line the walkway into the tipi, indoor firepits and much more. Twinkling lights on the wooden poles create an alluring atmosphere. These can be decorated with greenery and flowers to add a bit more of a 'WOW' factor.

With a design-driven approach and fierce attention to detail, Buffalo are experts at creating beautiful outdoor weddings and events where functionality and good looks go hand in hand. They stock the finest event tents, furniture and lighting for hire, but also provide a comprehensive and creative event planning framework. This end-to-end service takes you through the planning journey and makes sure everything is covered, whatever the weather.

Getting Married

Currently, Little Green Hill does not hold a license for on-site weddings, but there are several wonderful alternatives to consider. You might choose to exchange vows at one of the charming local churches and celebrate your reception at the venue.

Alternatively, you could have a legal marriage ceremony on a separate date at a registry office of your choice, followed by a deeply personal and unique celebrant ceremony at Little Green Hill.

To assist with your planning, we've highlighted a few nearby churches, along with contact details for their vicars.

Celebrant-led ceremonies are growing in popularity for their bespoke and meaningful approach. Unlike the formalities of a traditional legal ceremony, a celebrant creates a wedding that captures your love story, making it fun, romantic, and truly personal.

We highly recommend the wonderful Nicky Wildin from Supernova Celebrant. Nicky takes the time to meet with you, providing personalised questionnaires to craft the perfect ceremony. She can even help you write custom vows, ensuring every detail reflects your relationship and journey together. Plus, celebrant ceremonies allow for added flexibility—your guests can even enjoy a toast with alcoholic beverages during the celebration.
